As Chief Editor and a member of the online version of the national-level journal in education, "Journal of Education & Culture" (JOEAC), my vision is to uphold excellence in scholarly discourse, fostering a platform that bridges diverse perspectives and advances innovative educational paradigms. I aim to promote rigorous research, encouraging interdisciplinary dialogue & multidisciplinary approach to address contemporary challenges in education. JOEAC will become a hub for educators, researchers, and anyone invested in the future of education and culture. Together, we will foster a national conversation that shapes both educational practice and cultural understanding.
